

Prophecies Fulfilled by our Lord Jesus Christ

His life:

There was no life like the life of Jesus Christ. Though the Lord be high, ye he has respect unto the lowly (Psalm 138:6). God, our Creator, came and dwelt among us as a Man. He came as poor Jew that worked for a living. At the age of 30, he started his public ministry. He made the blind see, the deaf hear, the lame to walk again, he calmed the stormy sea, walked on water, fed the multitudes, cast out devils, raised the dead, and was a friend of sinners! He taught the truth of God, he was merciful, he was gracious, he was forgiving: this was the life of Christ.

His Death:

In incredible detail, the death of our Saviour Jesus Christ was written down hundreds and hundreds of years before it ever occurred. Some of the greatest passages that deal with his death are Isaiah 53 and Psalm 22. The reason for his death is clear. He died for our sins. He took upon himself the wrath of God for us. He did these things to take away our sins so that God could be reconciled to man, and be just in forgiving man, and in fellowshiping with man again. He did these things because he loved us.

His Resurrection:

Jesus Christ rose from the dead like the Scriptures said, like he said. This settles it all. Mohamed is dead, Buddha is dead, Gandhi is dead, Mary is dead, the popes are dead, BUT JESUS CHRIST DIED AND ROSE AGAIN!!!!!! That's the difference. After paying for our sins, and satisfying the wrath of God – tasting death for every man (Hebrews 2:9), he led captivity captive and rose from the dead, bringing the dead saints with him! He appeared unto his disciples and over 500 hundred brethren at one time. After 40 days of teaching things pertaining to the kingdom of God, he ascended up into heaven and sat down on the right hand of God. He remains there saving those that call upon his name, and interceding on their behalf before the Father. Soon he will return. Even so, Come, Lord Jesus.
