

How to be Strong in the LORD

In Matthew 21:15-16 we read, ““And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased, And said unto him, Hearst thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?”

Here Jesus is quoting from Psalm 8:2, but it says something a little different. “Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.”

You say brother Brian there is an error here. No there isn't. God is trying to teach you something. Praise strengthens! When you praise the Lord Jesus Christ, you personally are strengthened by it. If you don't believe me, why not try it? Why not start praising the Great God of heaven and earth and see what happens. He is the only one that is worthy of all our praise, worship, and adoration. Not Mary, not some dope pope, not Muhammed, not Allah, not Buddha, not Ghandi, and certainly not yourself. As the scriptures say, when he brings the first begotten into the world, we are to WORSHIP HIM! Praise ye the LORD! Give him the glory. Let everything that hath breath PRAISE THE LORD!

The joy of the LORD is your strength! (Nehemiah 8:10). When you are joyful in the Lord you most certainly can't help but praise him. And that is your strength. So why not praise him today for who he is and what he has done?
